DiDi, whose got your attention?

Gabriel expanding his horizons.

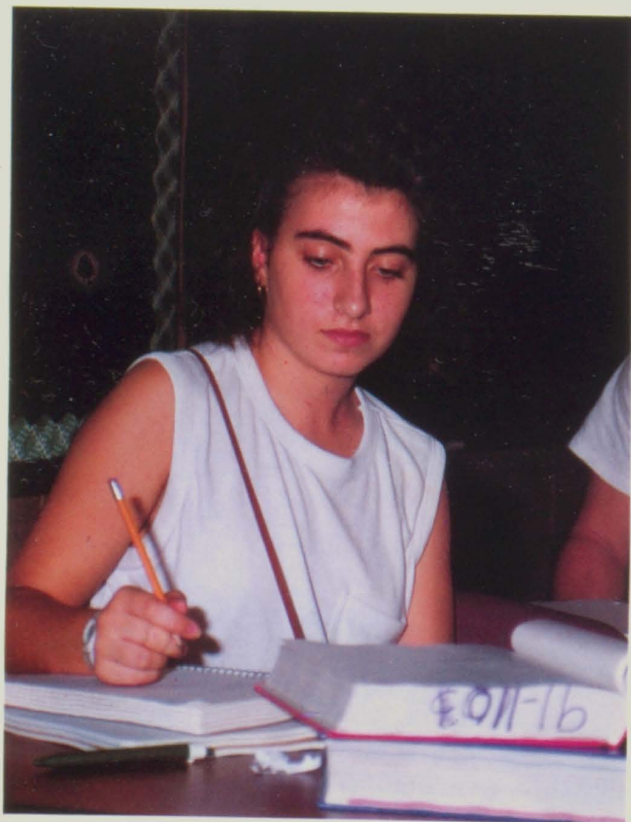

I think I've got it.

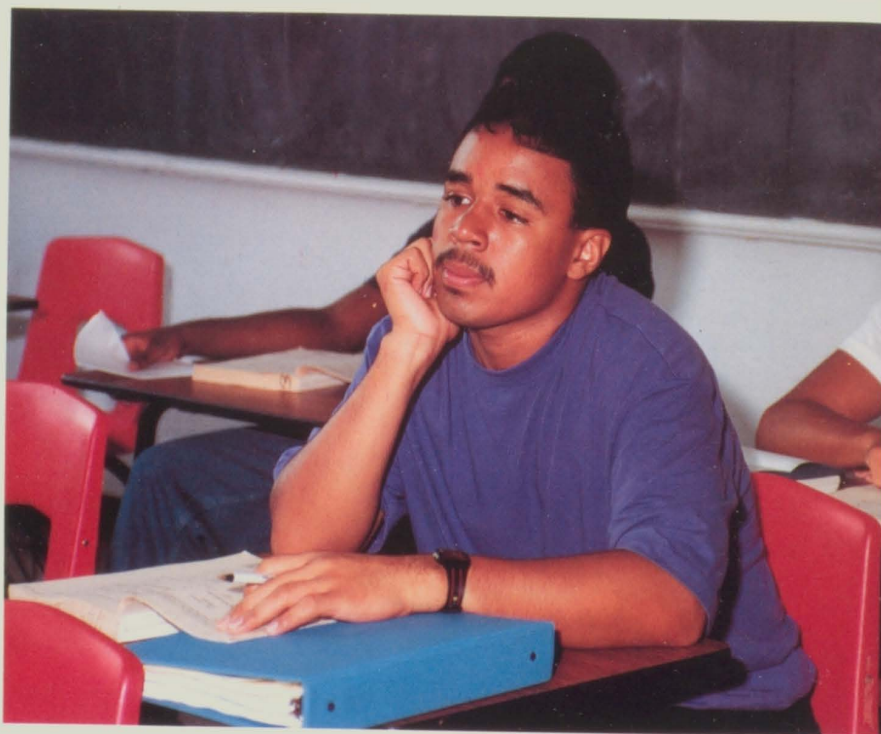

Peace!

What do you mean pose?

Help me, please!

Just the final stroke.

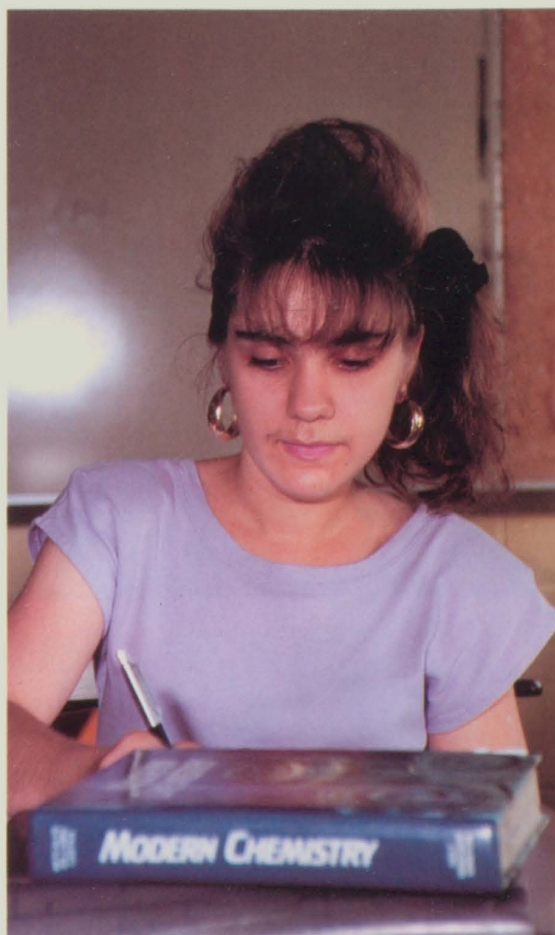

Luckily it's 8th period.

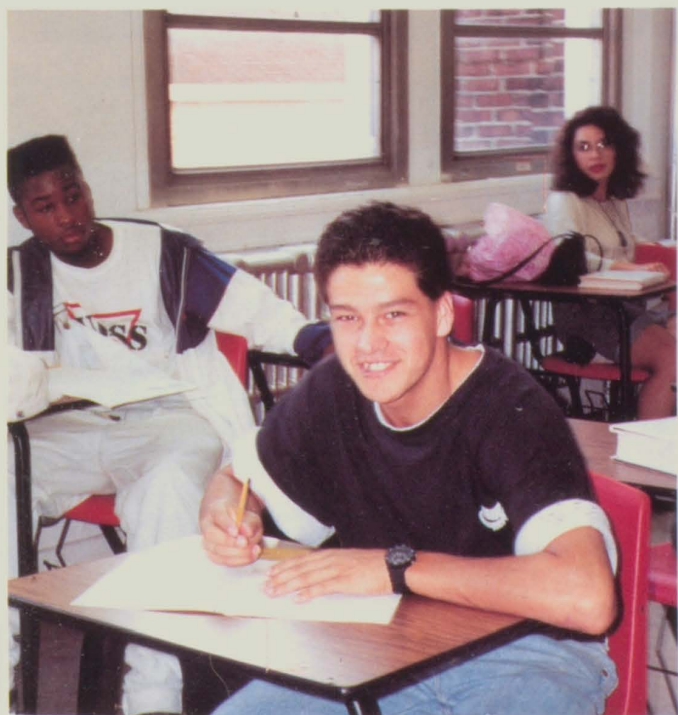

Don't bother us; we're busy!

I'll finish in a minute.

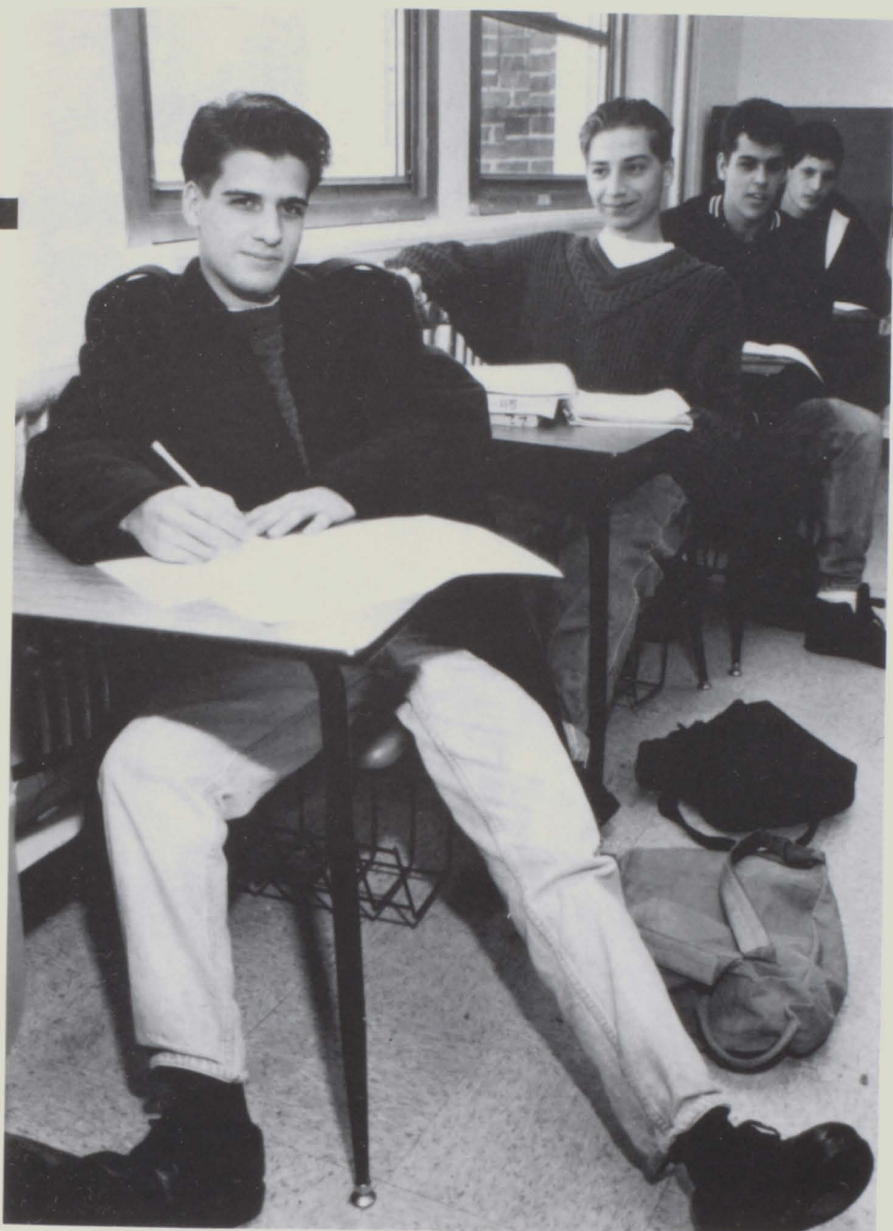

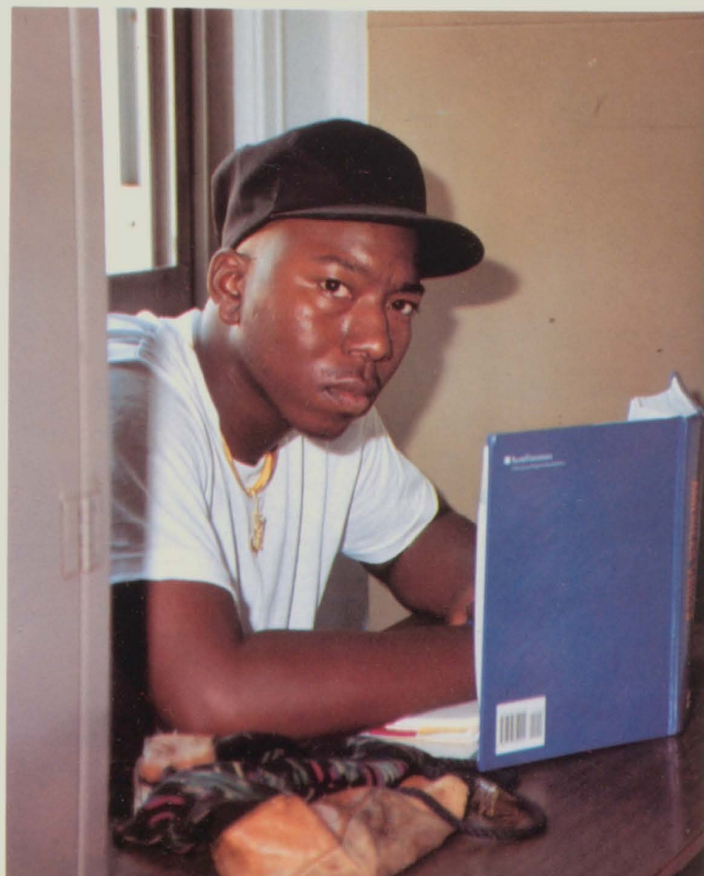

Do I really need this class?

Of course I understand.

Solangee contemplating an escape.

Just hanging out!

The lunch bunch.

Who's who? Wendy and Iris.

There's room for more.

Friends are very important in life,
Although we often forget,
But they are still by our side,
Reliable and true.
You tell them all your feelings,
You know they'll understand,
The reasons for the things you say and do,
Friends are forever true.

Can't believe we're actually reading.

Did you hear that ...

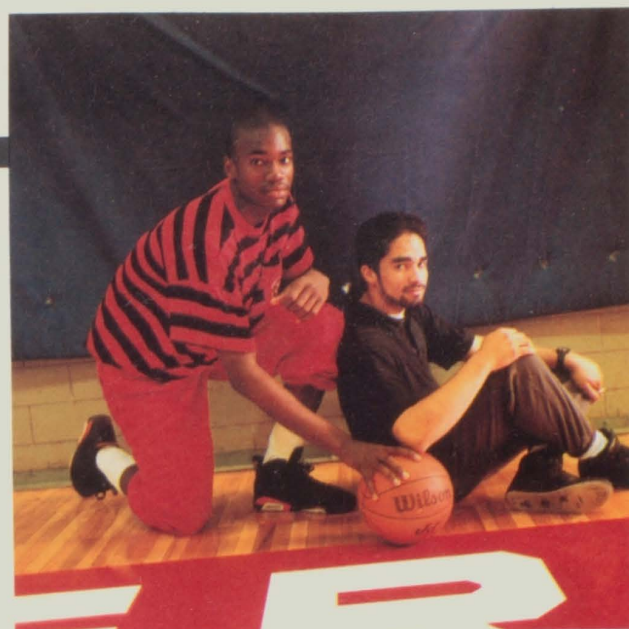

Some guys have all the luck.

Julie . . . oh you're heavy!

Jack relaxing in the shade.

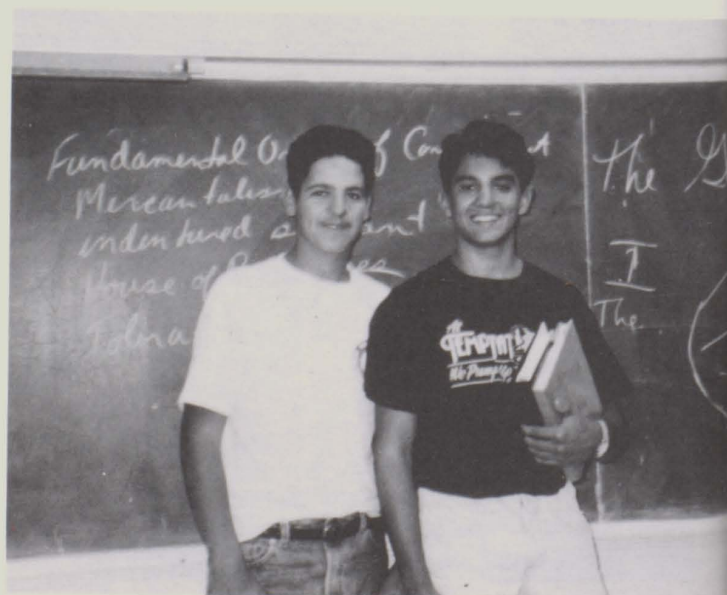

Tony and Fabian chilling out.

Oh man, something cracked.

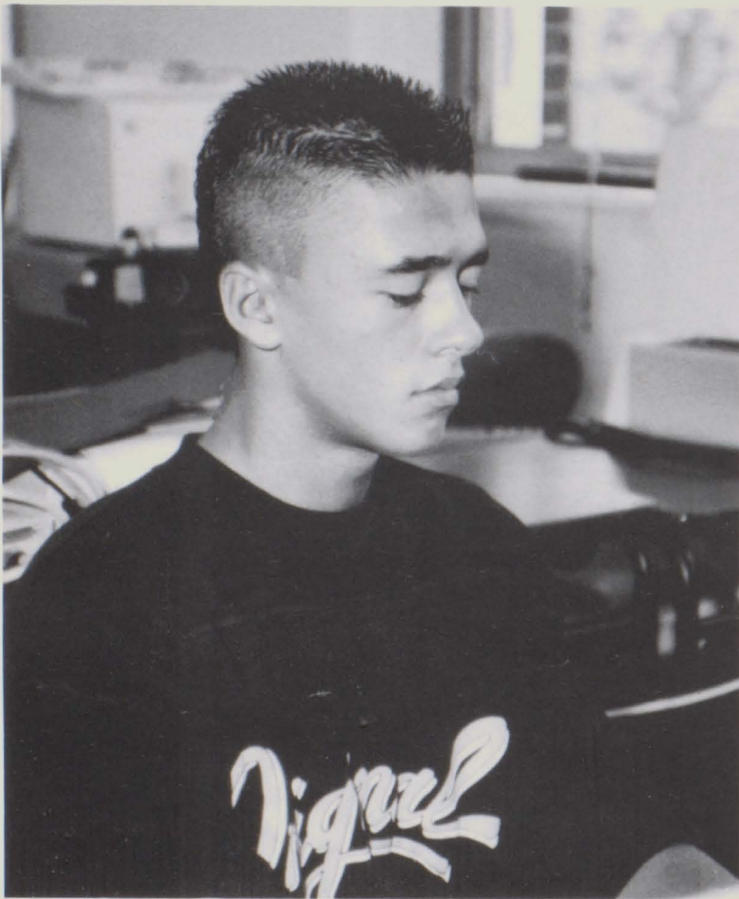

I know you've seen my pompons.

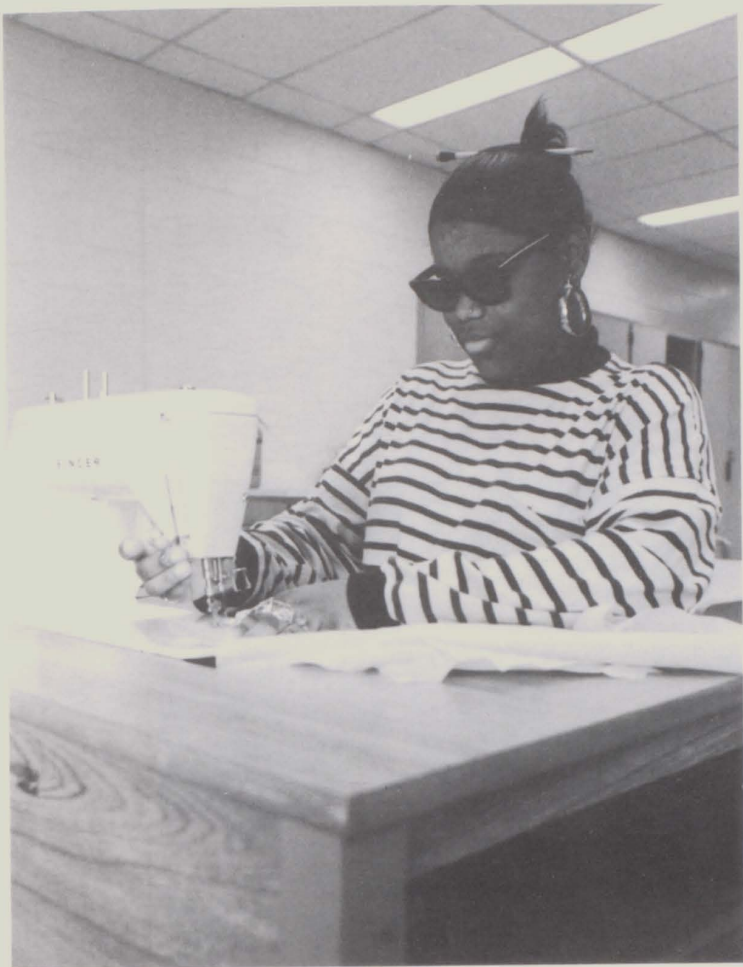

THE JUNIOR PROM

"We've Got Tonight"

June 13, 1991

THE JUNIOR PROM

Junior Year started off with a dilemma. During the first few weeks of school, rumors were flying as to whether or not we were going to have a prom. Since the class before us did not have one, were we going to continue the "new trend" of no Junior Prom?

Everyone debated the pros and cons of the issue. Such as: by not having a Junior Prom we would have a greater reason to look forward to our Senior Prom. Yet, if we did not have a Junior Prom we would be missing out on so many memories and an introduction to a formal event. Mrs. Capik (our class advisor), our class officers, and a group of students formed a prom committee that took everything into account and made the final decision — on June 13, 1991, East Side's Junior Class was going to have a prom held at the Holiday Inn Jet Port! Now the dilemma was over, right? Wrong!

The final decision brought about another set of problems. Now we had to decide on who we were going with to the prom. What were we going to wear and how should we do our hair? Do we have to rent a limo? Where do we go afterwards? We were given approximately four months to settle the most important of these questions and to answer a few more unexpected ones.

As the time before the prom diminished the anticipation and worries escalated. It became increasingly more difficult to deal with the matters at hand when the time allotted us was quickly running out. Some of us had to wait until the last minute to get the perfect dress and/or the perfect date!

At last, it was the big night. Route 1 and 9 was slightly busier on the evening of June 13 as East Side's Juniors and their dates made their way to the Holiday Inn. There, Mrs. Capik greeted everyone with a smile and a picture holder key chain. After posing for professional pictures, if one chose, everyone entered the ballroom. We found it elegantly decorated with balloons and each table had a keepsake champagne glass for every junior.

Everyone had obviously made the decision to impress each other. Between all the new dresses and suits we, too, matched our elegant surroundings. The hardest thing to adjust to, however, was the change in everyone's appearance. It was amazing how a few alterations could transform a group of high school students into sophisticated ladies and gentlemen. Who could ever forget the difference that a jacket and tie made for our very own Albert Adams! A suit was a sharp departure from the usual ripped jeans and tee shirts. Mrs. Sangale, one of East Side's business teachers, also pointed out how two of her students, Laura Diego and Diana Fernandez, looked like totally different people by simply wearing their hair up, each in a distinct and elegant style. These are only a few examples, but we will always remember the other changes through the many prom pictures taken that evening.

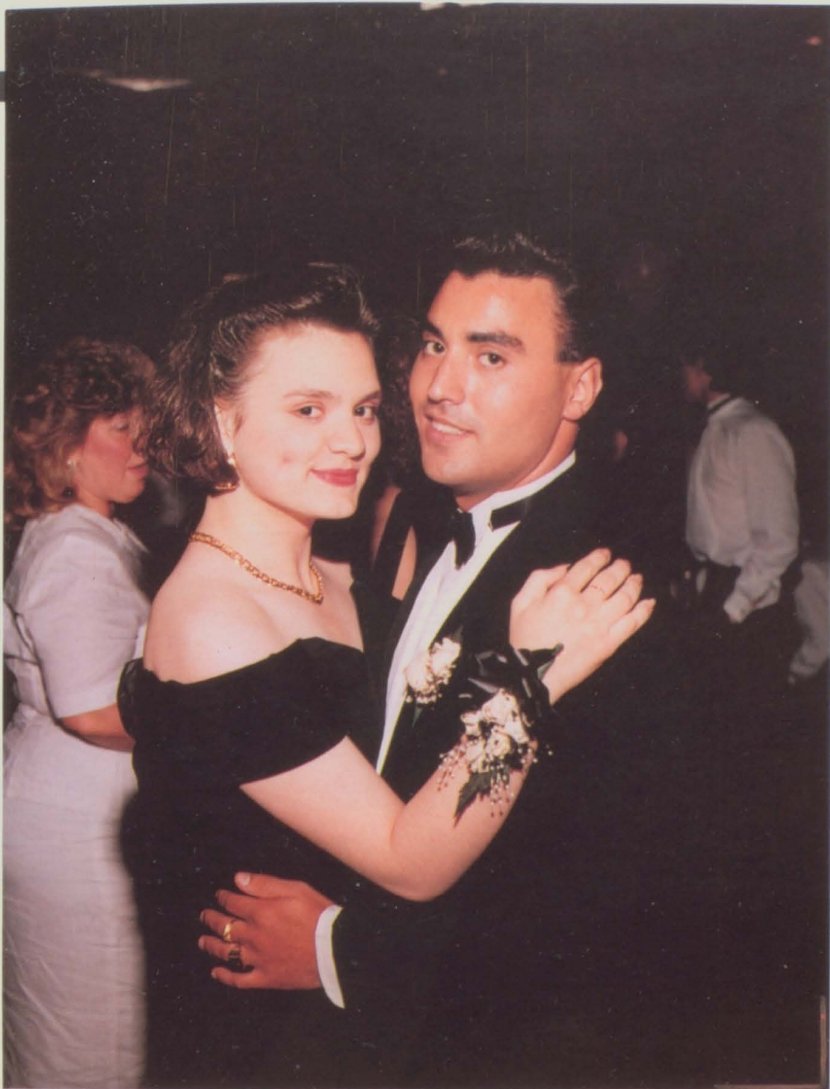

The prom was not only responsible for the changes in our appearances, but in our attitudes. For one night, everyone seemed to forget their antagonism toward one another. It had been unanimously decided that the night would be Laura and Andy are all smiles.

Zoraida and Juan waiting for dessert.

Lu and Lui dancing the night away.

Alex and Paul looking great together one of general enjoyment. The Junior Prom also served as an introduction to formal dining for many of us. As each person was served, conversations turned to such mundane matters as: "Do I have to take my gloves off?" and "Can I eat the chicken with my fingers?" Needless to say, we handled dinner beautifully without a mess!

As the D.J. played our theme song, "We've Got Tonight," every couple made their way to the dance floor. Those who had gone stag simply joined up with one another to form more couples so that everyone could enjoy the evening. Too quickly for most people, the evening came to a close and everyone was sorry to see that the celebration was coming to an end.

The large group of East Siders started to disband into smaller groups. Those that had plans to continue the evening until the last minutes of their extended curfews, headed out to pre-arranged rendezvous. You could have found East Siders in such places as the South Street Seaport in New York and along the Jersey shore. Some even had a hotel room party at another small inn. The next time everyone at the prom met each other in school, it was with smiles of shared and timeless memories. "We've Got Tonight" forever in our minds.

You don't have to say it, we know we look good.

Anthony and Andrea.

Where did you come from?

Do you mind? I'm eating!

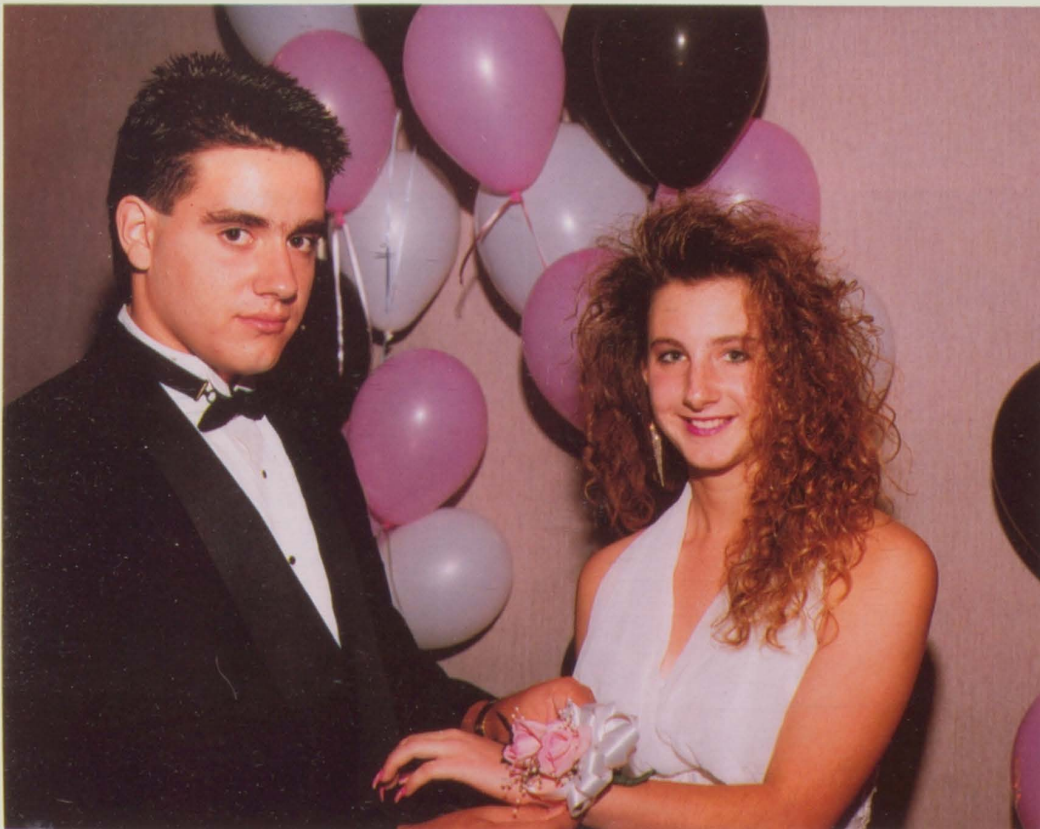

Can we eat dinner now?

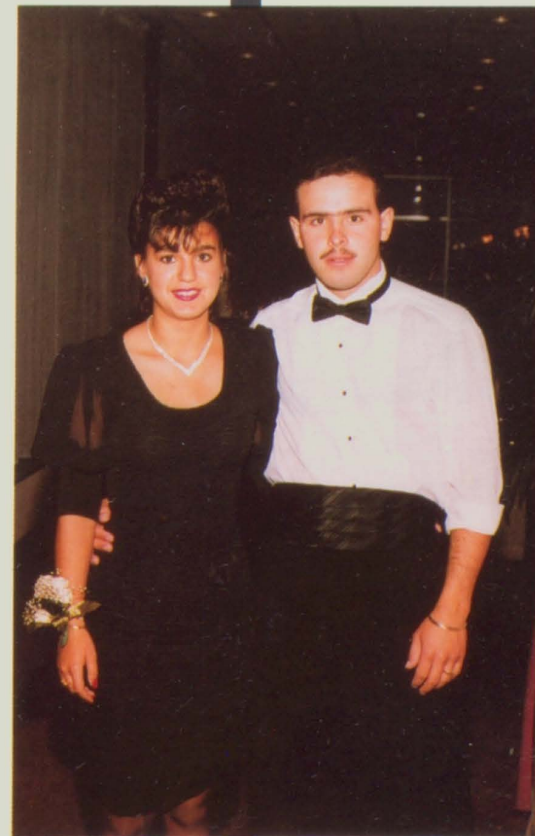

I can't believe he said that.

Adding finishing touches.

Hold it right there. Smile!

ADMINISTRATION

Here we are! Upon graduation we become aware that our success had to do with the teachers with whom we studied, or who simply helped us in any way. There's one thing for sure, we could always count on someone from East Side's Faculty for support. In general, we had our subject teachers to fill our minds with knowledge, to teach us thinking procedures and to accept challenges. Whenever we had a problem (particularly a personal problem), we just had to take a walk down to the guidance office and speak with our counselors to seek advice. They are always ready to help.

Did you ever need to find a book in the library and didn't know where it might be? Well, thanks to the librarians at East Side we didn't need to worry about that. The librarians were always willing to help, with a patient smile.

All in all; it was the actions of teachers and staff as individuals that make the faculty at East Side as dedicated and respected as it is.

Of course, someone has to be the head of all this. One who makes certain decisions to keep the school in order. One who listens and helps with problems of the school or of an individual. Who is that person? Mr. Wujciak, our principal. Thank you Mr. Wujciak, faculty and staff which have helped our seniors to be where we are today. We couldn't have made it without any of you.

Mary Darden, Dennis LaScala, John Mavilla, Evelyn Williams, M. Ivette Alfonso, Charles A. Bell, Eleanor George, 1st V. President; Rev. Perry Simmons Jr. President; Eugene C. Campbell, Exec. Superintendent; and William A. Good, 2nd V. President

Mr. Robert H. Wujciak

At every institution there is a presence that holds it together. At East Side, the principal, Mr. Robert H. Wujciak is the driving force. He has been principal at East Side for 8 years and previous to that was part of the educational system as a teacher of biological science. Throughout his tenure as an innovative administrator, many varied opportunities have been introduced to East Side.

There have been several programs begun under his administration. Mr. Wujciak founded the East Side Opportunity Program, (ESOP.) This program, Mr. Wujciak's "pet project," exposes able students to a unique academic honors curriculum throughout their high school years. These students are exposed to concentrated, demanding courses of study. Under his administration Peer Leadership was instituted at East Side. This program enables students to support each other and "be there" for newcomers as they adjust to high school life.

Mr. Wujciak is also very concerned with the feelings and opinions of the student body and therefore puts forth all his effort to actively participate in school affairs. He has had the school's interior painted in vivid and lively colors, as well as stripping the exterior walls of the buildings of graffiti. Mr. Wujciak even went beyond the call of duty and has voluntarily taught an analytical physiology course.

The graduating Class of 1992 will fondly remember Mr. Robert H. Wujciak. Thank you for helping us through the tough times and praising us through the good times.

Senior Counselors:

Even before we entered East Side officially, we were assigned to a guidance counselor. Throughout our high school years, it has been to these counselors we have turned to with our problems. Whether we needed our schedule or a grade changed or we needed someone to talk to, the guidance office always offered solace.

Some of us will never forget the help our guidance counselors offered our senior year. Between deciding what we wanted to do after graduation and filling out all the required forms, our guidance counselor became our best companion.

The senior class of 1992 would like to take this opportunity to express our deepest gratitude to the Guidance Counselors for their dedication and commitment.

Cut it out!

As I was saying . . .

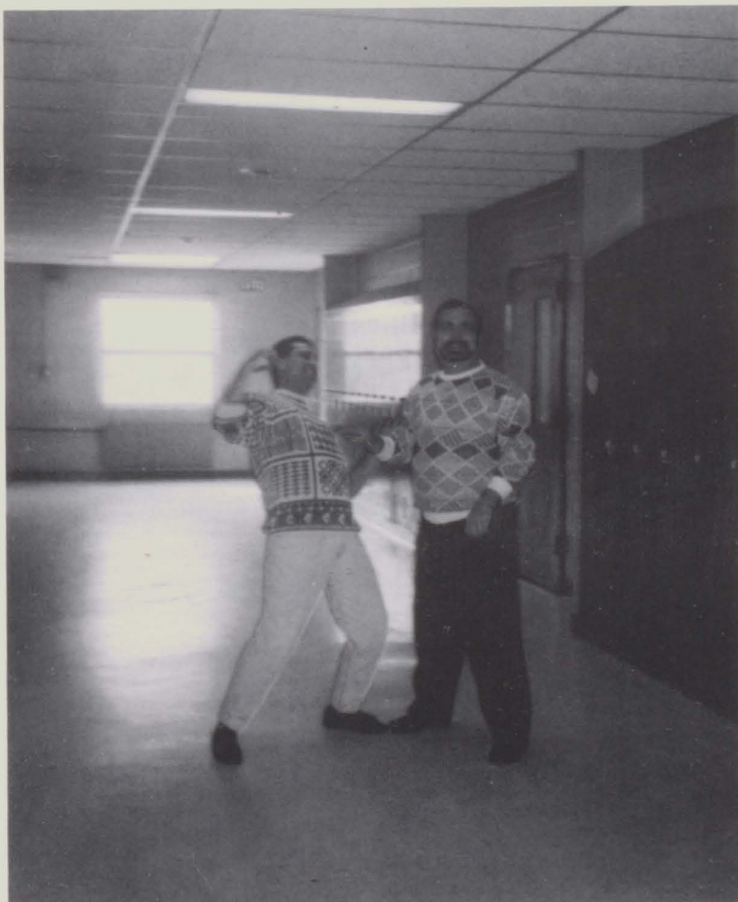

There's a book missing.

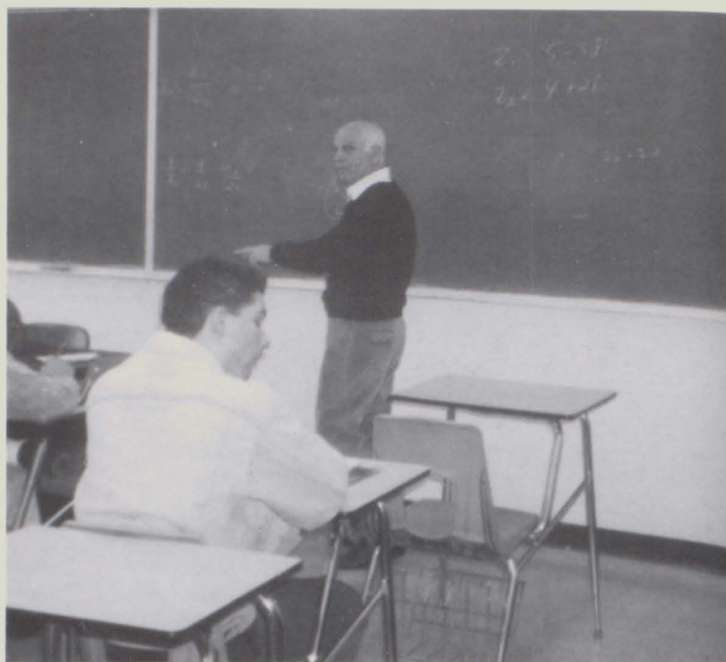

Can't you see we're busy?

Let's not get "carried away!"

Seriously, cut it out!

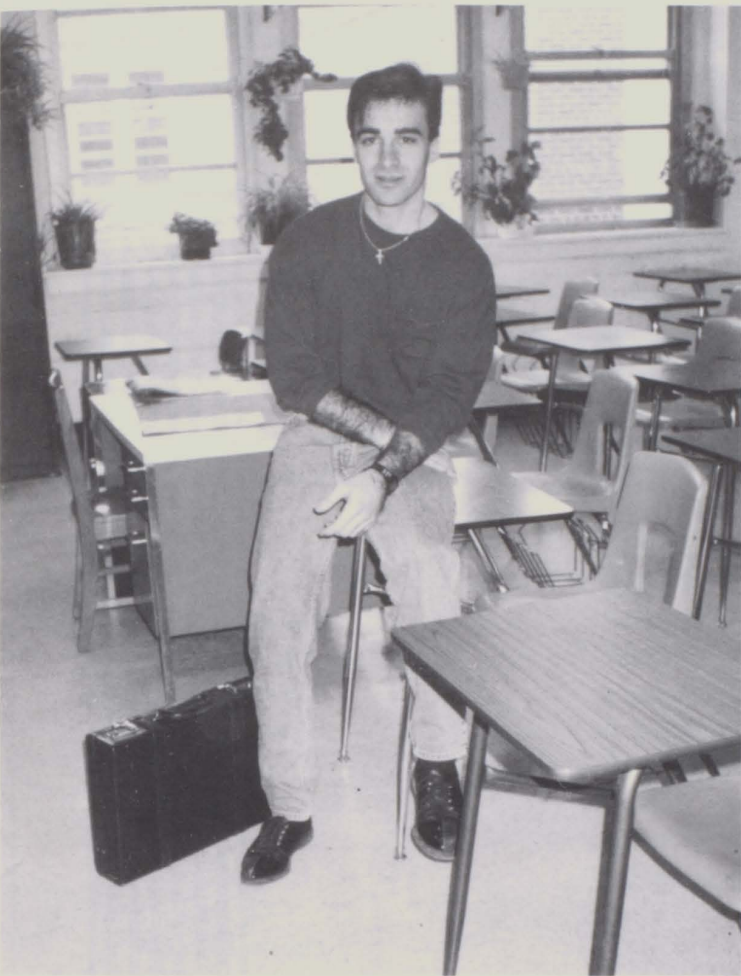

I've got my eye on you.

What do you mean the elevator isn't working?

Finally, a chance to relax!

Mr. Santos, can we please have a moment of your time?

Oh, were you hungry?

Didn't you read the sign?

Top Ten Seniors

One way of measuring one's academic achievement is by calculating everyone's GPA. With a class of 522 students, this could not be easily accomplished. Once that's done, there is yet another test of achievement — the class rank. Although some would say it's only a number which doesn't mean anything, the top 10 seniors would strongly disagree. It is no surprise that these 10 students should be singled out. For the past four years they not only succeeded to accomplish academic excellence they have been involved in a myriad of extra-curricular activities. Congratulations on your accomplishments. The End Of High School ... signifies the beginning of a journey on the rocky road of life. Where we once enjoyed togetherness, shared tears and happiness; as each of us goes our separate ways the bond of closeness will be loosened. We shall discover new and varied interests and strive to realize high achievements in our collective future. We shall, through higher education or occupational ambition improve our lives. Never however, shall we forget our friends from East Side High School. Let this annual be a reminder of those care free days of our youth.

MEMOR

There are many things that throughout high school may have slipped our minds, such as homework assignments, studying for tests and even the occasional forgetting to get up for school in the morning. On the other hand we never seem to forget at what time the periods end, scheduled assemblies or most of all the date of the next vacation or early dismissal day. Here are a few more things to "fondly" remember through the years.

My favorite year at East Side was _____.

I always made sure to show up to my favorite class _____ where I silently sat wishing I didn't have to go to _____.

While listening to highly "profound" comments made by _____, I often wondered why other teachers, especially _____, couldn't be that deep.

Every _____ period you could find me looking for _____ around _____.

No matter how bad things may have been throughout the day, I always found sanctuary at my locker where _____.

Not much could compare to socializing during _____, but _____, was the ultimate event of the year.

Although getting up early five days a week may be a bit of a hardship and attending school for six hours straight may be even more stressful, there are always the other aspects of life to look forward to.

Each day as I heard the 2:30 bell, the first thing that came to my mind was to _____, even though I knew I had to go _____.

Each night as I fell asleep I would think about my life and realize that life _____.

Somehow Friday's seem to just slip away while I anxiously awaited the weekend, back when I would _____ with _____.

There are so many different things that we enjoy and find to be our favorites in life that condensing them into three simple captions under our pictures would not suffice. This is why our highly innovative yearbook staff developed an idea which is "Something Totally Different."

Whenever I needed a break from reality, I would watch my favorite movie _____. Sometimes I dreamed that I looked like _____ while co-starring with _____ in a movie like _____.

Every _____ I would always be sure to watch or record my favorite TV show _____. _____ and _____ were my favorite TV stars because of the way they _____.

Sometimes when I felt _____ I would listen to my favorite song _____, by _____. On the other hand when I was feeling _____ the first impulse would be to listen to _____, by _____.

What about those English book reports?
My favorite book to read was always _____. Sometimes it was easier just to read my favorite magazine _____. Of course there was always the newspaper where I would always turn to the _____ section where I could catch up on _____.

EAST

Each day as I stood in front of my closet figuring out what to wear I realized that my clothes was mostly _____, my favorite color. Somehow I still always felt like wearing my _____ which was my favorite thing to wear.

As I would sit in the cafeteria each lunch period, I would envision myself driving a _____, my ultimate dream car, on my way to buy _____ at my favorite place to eat _____.

No matter what day of the week it was, whether it was _____, my favorite, or _____, my most dreaded, you could always find me uttering my favorite mott, "_____."

Throughout my years at East Side many events have taken place but none stick in my memory quite like these.

FRESHMAN year was _____

SOPHOMORE year there was _____

JUNIOR year brought about _____

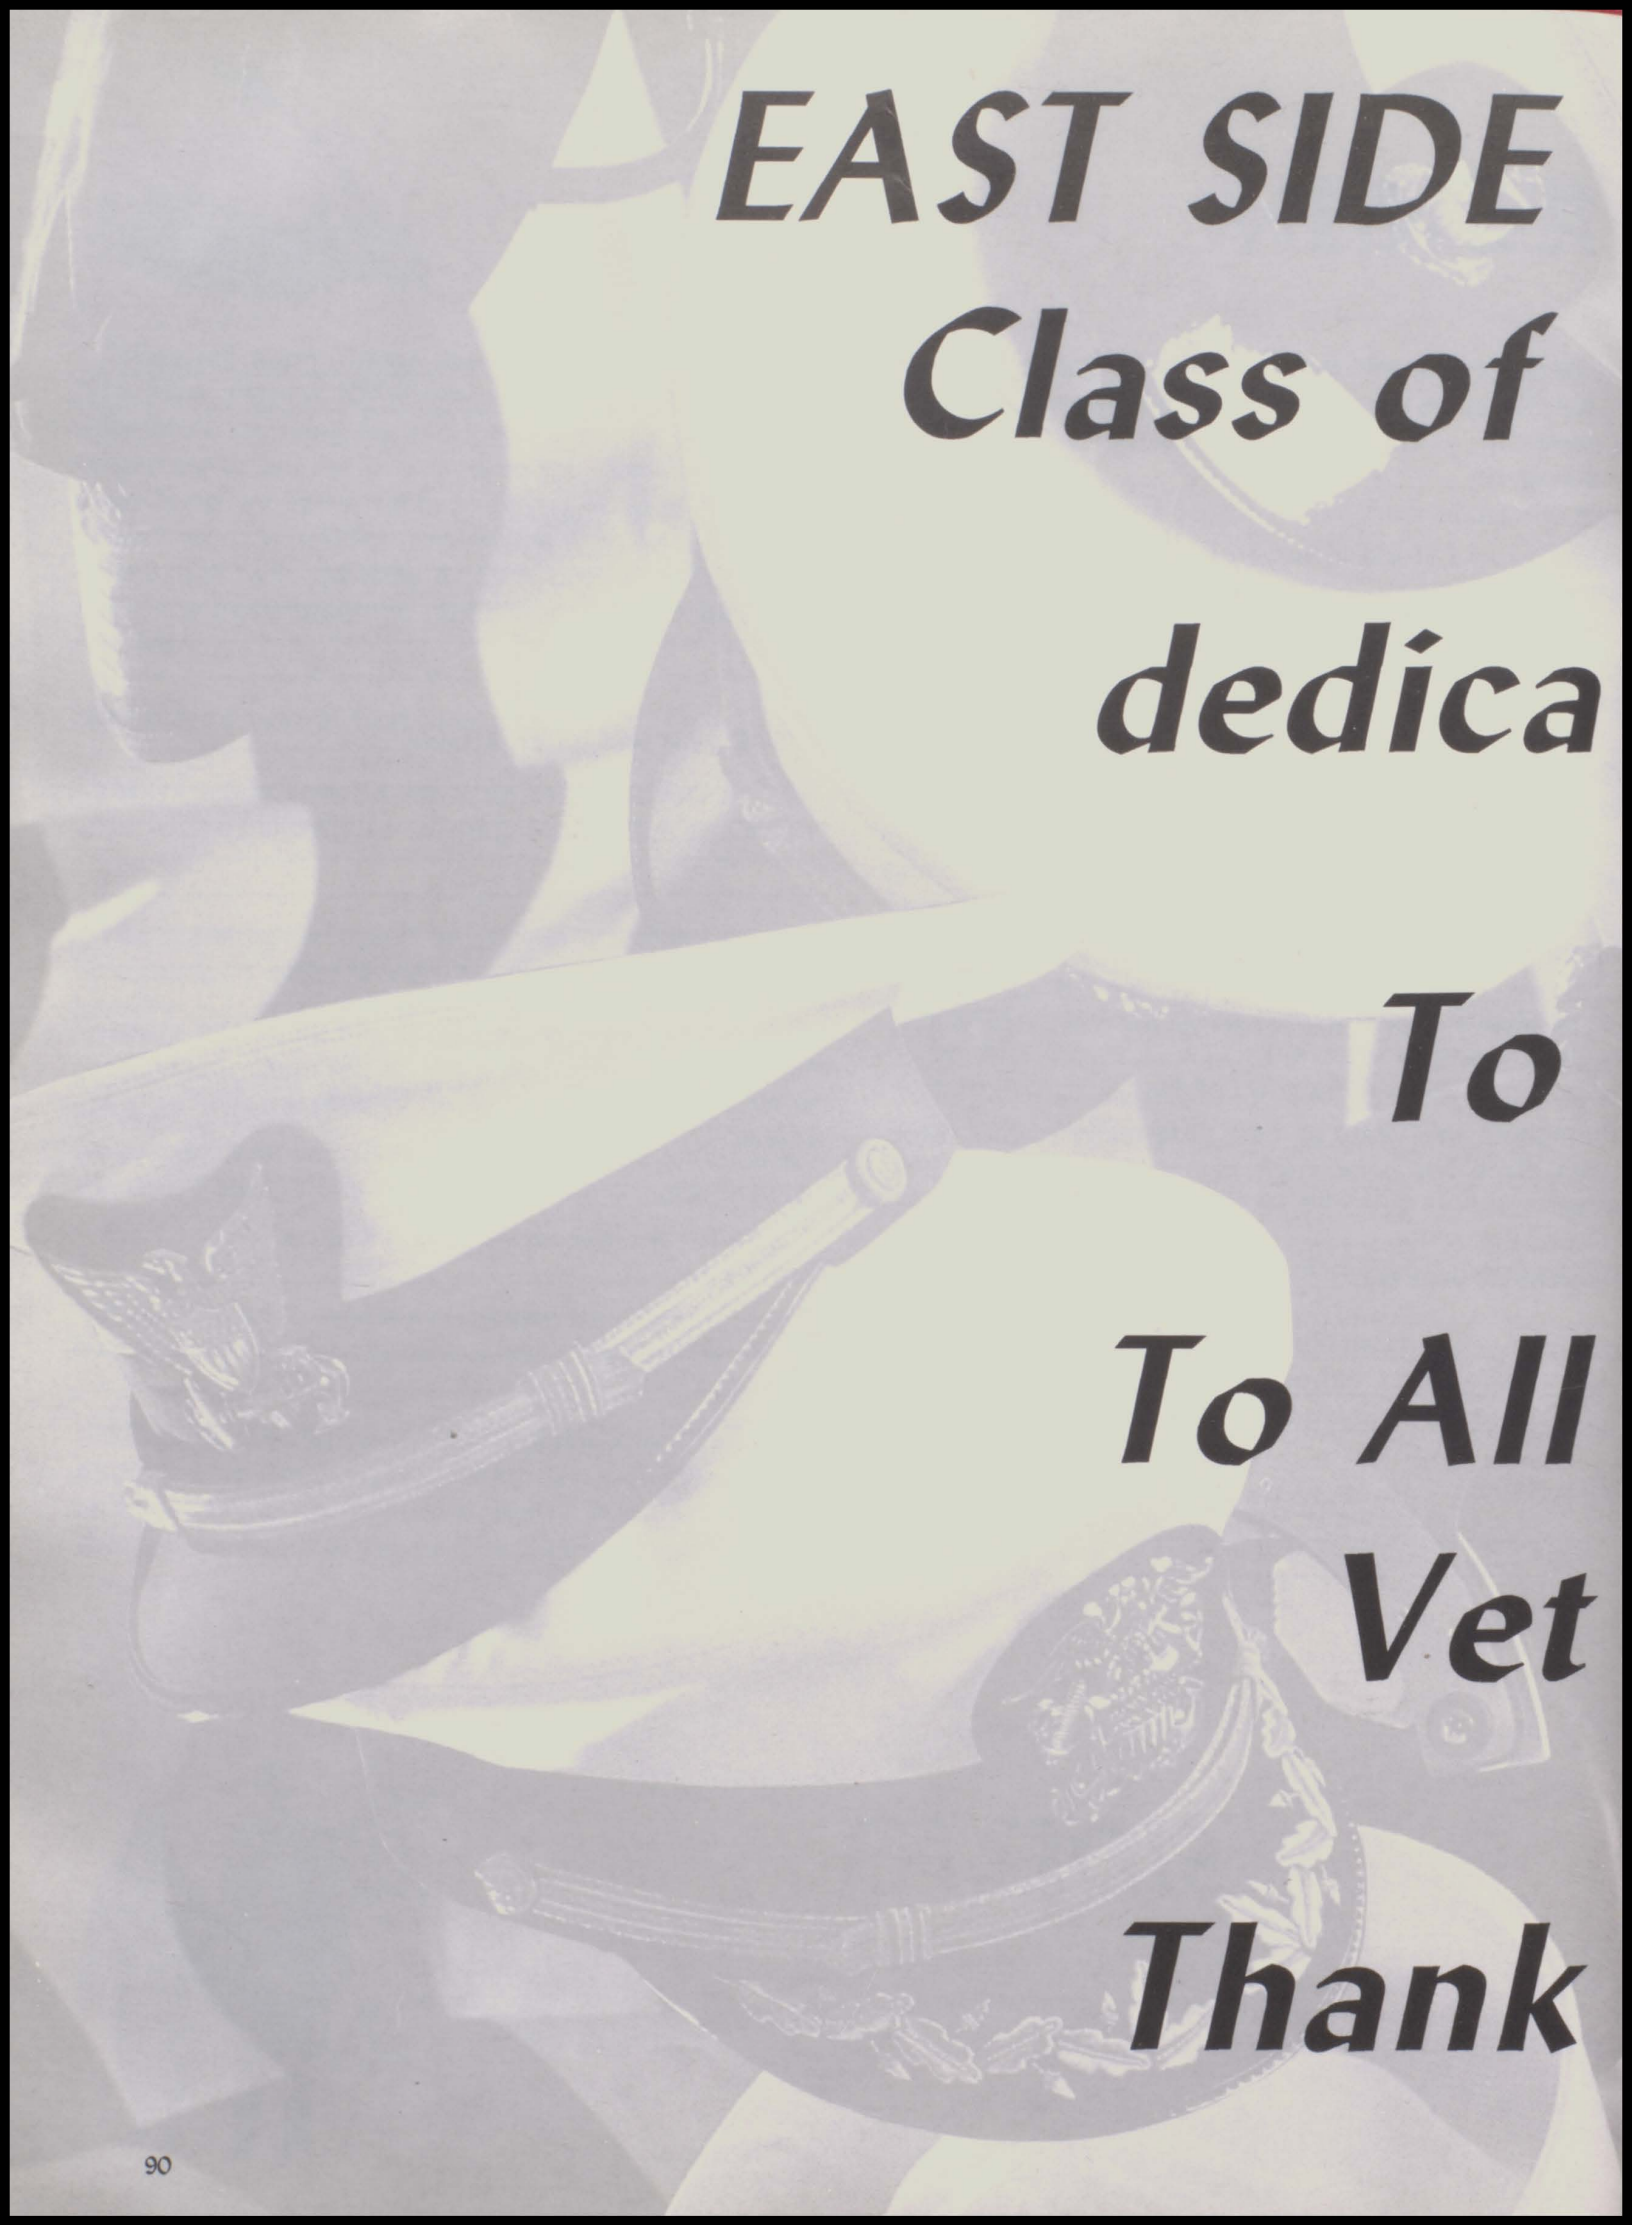

SENIOR year was unforgettable _____

The years came and went as did all of the events that took place but they were all the more special because of a select group of people known as my "FRIENDS."

Thanks for the memories guys, I'll never forget you. _____

Roster of Superior Merit

Finney J. Alati

Finney J. Alati, son of immigrants, the late John and Jennie Alati, was born and raised in the Ironbound section of Newark, where he still resides. He graduated from Lafayette Street School, East Side High School and later from Vale School of Business. He also attended Rutgers University where he studied Real Estate Appraising and Tax Administration.

Finney served with the 82nd Airborne during World War II, and upon his discharge in 1947 married the former Alice Silva. The Alati's son John and daughter-in-law Linda Gail have blessed them with two beautiful grandchildren, Danine and Johnny.

Since 1951 he has owned and operated the Alati Real Estate and Insurance Agency and currently maintains offices at 202 Lafayette Street, Newark, NJ.

Throughout his career, Finney Alati has unselfishly given his time, talents and energy in serving the public and has earned a record of distinction as Executive Secretary to the Newark Planning Board, 1968-1970; Commissioner of the Newark Pension Fund, 1970-1975; Commissioner of the Essex County Board of Elections, 1972-1975; and presently serves as Commissioner on the Essex County Board of Taxation. In the political arena, Finney has served on the Newark Municipal Council and as the Newark East Ward Democratic Chairman.

Despite these responsibilities, Finney Alati has also been an active member in the life of the Ironbound Community. For ten years he served as President of the Ironbound Little League. He also served as President of the Ironbound Boys' and Girls' Club Advisory Council, 1981-1985; President of the Board of Governors of the Real Estate Board of Newark, Irvington, and Hillside North 1983-1985; President Ironbound Optimist Club, 1986-1987; President of the Ironbound Manufacturers Association, 1987-1988; and member Board of Directors Metro Newark Chamber of Commerce, 1981-1990; and a member of the Board of Directors of the United Way of Essex and West Hudson, 1986-1988.

Besides being still active in these organizations he also is a member of the Advisory Board of the Ironbound Ambulance Squad; the Advisory Board of the Broad National Bank; a member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Julio Silva Post and the Italian American War Veterans, Post #8.

Our honoree has devoted his entire adult life in selfless service to the Ironbound Community. In 1974 he received the Community Service Award from the Down Neck Social Club. In 1976 he received the Community Service Award from the Italian Tribune News. In 1980 he received the Community Service Award from the Newark-Irvington Board of Realtors. In 1981 he received the Man of the Year Award from the Ironbound Boys' and Girls' Club. He has also been cited by the Newark Municipal Council and the New Jersey State Senate for his community service.

Senior Class Advisor

Mrs. Maria Capik

Mrs. Maria Capik was born in Buenos Aires, Argentina, but in November of 1972 came to the United States. Once she was in New Jersey, she enrolled at East Side High School. When Mrs. Capik speaks of her years as a high school student she says, "I remember the good times, the people who helped me to learn the language and to keep me going with my education." In 1975 she graduated from East Side and went on to further her education at Essex County College. Mrs. Capik later transferred to Kean College where she graduated in 1979 with a B.A. and certification to teach in New Jersey. Presently, she is attending college to obtain certification in Administration and Supervision.

For the past ten years Mrs. Capik has been part of East Side's faculty as a teacher of the Spanish Language. She has not only been an educator but motivator to students. Mrs. Capik has been the advisor for the Spanish Club for several years and twice for the Senior Class (1990 & 1992.) She organized many activities in order to help the Class of 1992 enjoy their years at East Side. Throughout Junior and Senior year we all counted on Mrs. Capik and our class officers to set up bowling, skating and splash parties. Along with Mrs. Capik, the Class of 1992 was also kept busy planning and preparing for the long awaited return of the fashion/talent show at East Side. The dances, balls and proms took much cooperative work by Mrs. Capik and the senior class. Mrs. Capik also diligently made sure that our dues were paid and saw that we were informed of happenings throughout the school.

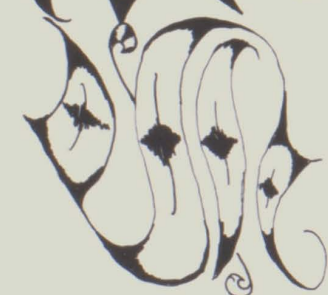

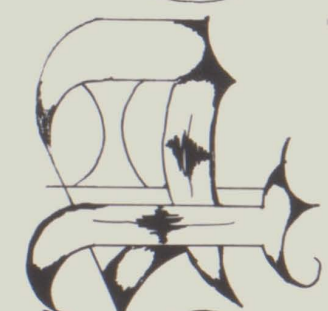

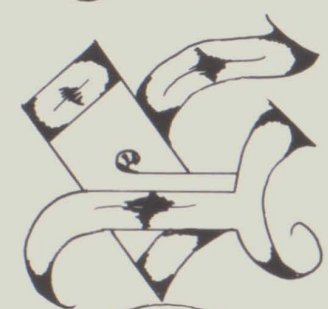

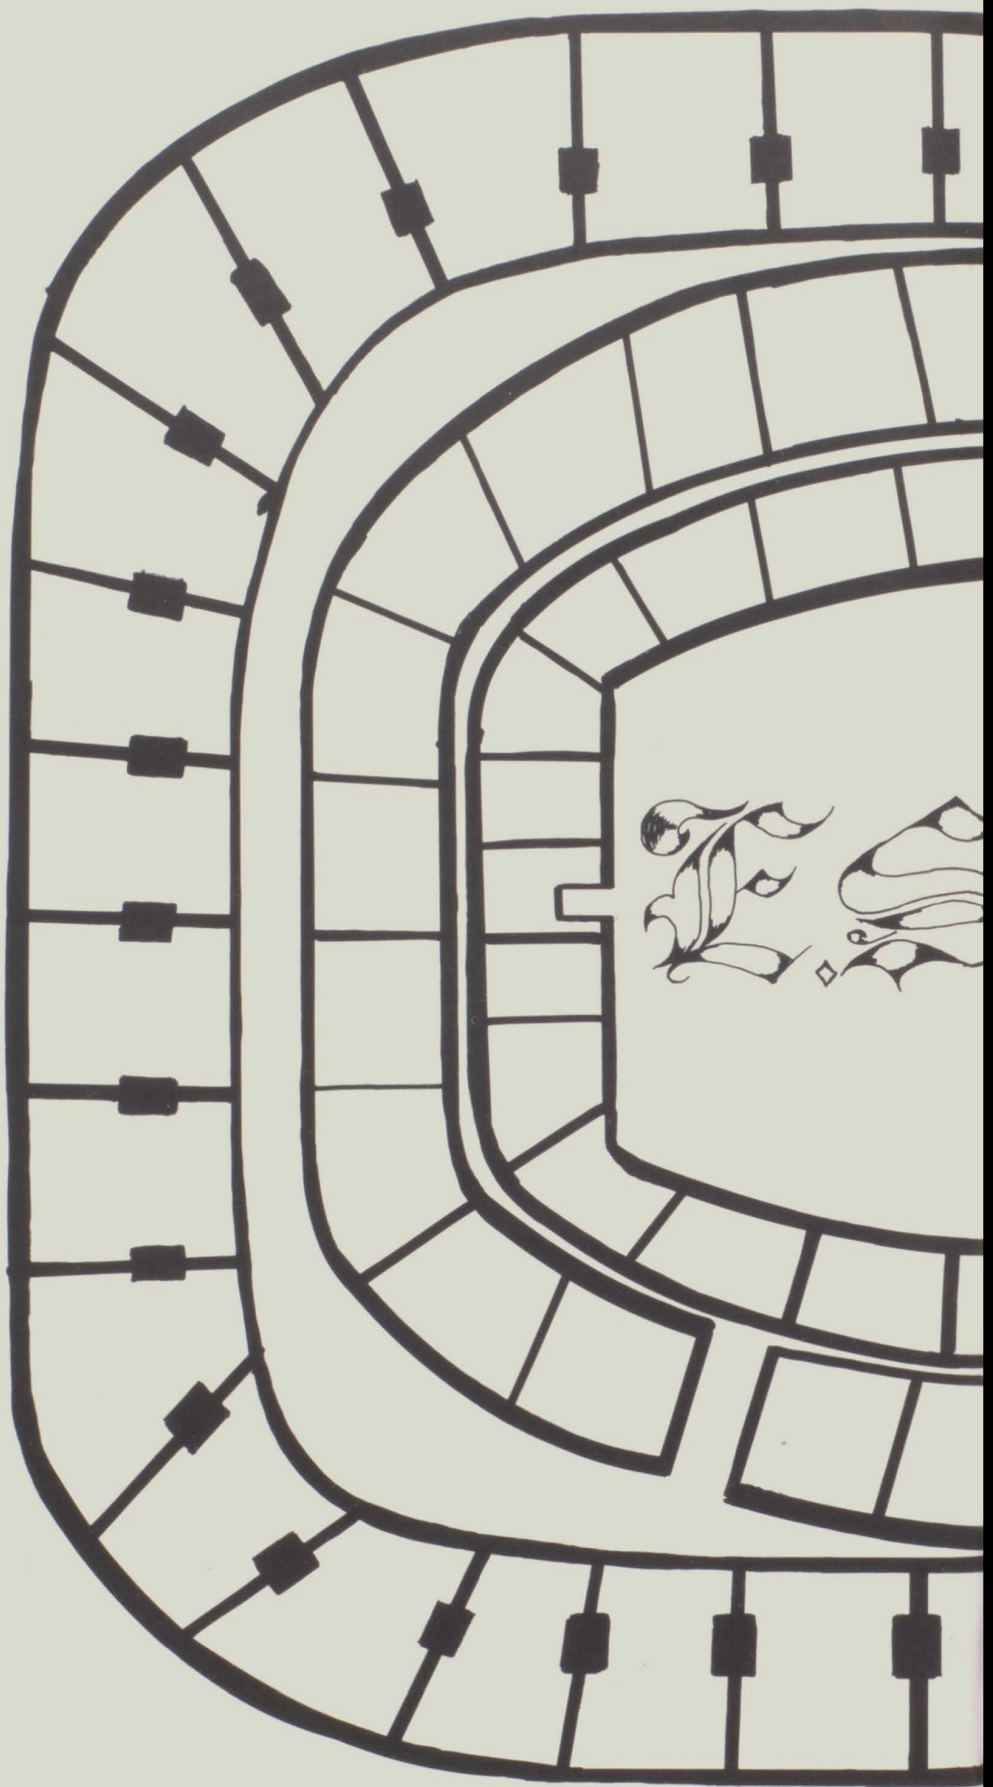

As the graduates of 1992 bid farewell to high school, the dedication and care that Mrs. Capik showed towards us will stay with us always. Thank you Mrs. Capik for the opportunity to make our high school years as different, loving, fun and exciting as you are.

Now it is up to you to create your own memories. Paste down pictures, draw,
write or do anything you please. Whatever you do, "Have Fun!"

RED RAIDERS

Have you ever analyzed your, or someone else's, face? Well did you know your face tells people a lot about the "inner" you. Every facial feature represents a specific characteristic. You could use the information on these pages to examine the faces of your favorite people in this book. Have Fun!

brows reveal how you think.

- If your brows are even: Your ideas are solid and well formulated. You also have a strong sense of detail.

- If you have starter brows: Your ideas are creative, but you don't always follow them through.

- If you have ender brows: Although you struggle to start a project, you're a strong finisher.

The shape of your brows also says a lot about your personality:

- If your brows are curved: You have a warm personality and get very emotionally involved with other people.

- If your brows are straight: You're more interested in ideas than people. You have a passion for logic.

- If your brows are angled: You like to take charge and direct situations.

eyes

show how you look at the world and other people.

- If you have close-set eyes: You concentrate on details and you can be narrow-minded at times.

- If your eyes are far set: You have a broad perspective on things, but sometimes you ignore details.

- Heavy eyelids: You are compassionate, sensuous and very open with your emotions.

- Thin eyelids: You tend to keep to yourself. It isn't easy for someone to become intimate with you.

noses reveal your work style.

● Straight nose: You have a practical nature—you're logical, analytical and very methodical.

● Bumpy nose: You take an original approach to problem solving and aren't afraid to break the rules.

● Arched nose: You tend to work emotionally—you rely on intuition rather than logic to solve problems.

● Ski jump nose: You're erratic in your work habits but tend to achieve a good deal.

lips

Speak volumes about your sexuality.

● Full lips mean that you are sensuous, emotional and tend to be physically demonstrative.

● Thin lips mean that you are more reserved with your emotions. You're a smooth talker, though, so you're likely to be successful in business.

● Cupid's bow lips mean that you're not at all shy about asking for what you want—and you usually get it.

● Wide lips mean you have a terrific sense of humor; you're also a very sociable person.

Do We Belong Together

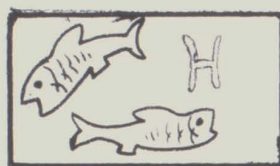

AQUARIUS
(1/20 — 2/18)

An aquarius is fascinated by a gemini, and vice-versa, so it's a loving match made in heaven. Libra and gemini are both affectionate and social and enjoy each others company. Sagittarius and Aquarius are always searching for freedom in this relationship just may work once you learn to trust one another. Definite NOT situations for any aquarius is a relationship with a leo. Leos are very stubborn and none of you are willing to give each other their way.

PISCES
(2/19 — 3/20)

Cancer and pisces are both sensitive and tender. They are both very devoted and will make a relationship work. A scorpio and a pisces share an unspoken union full of love. Taurus and pisces are very caring and fond partners; they can share many romantic moments. Pisces and capricorn are an affectionate couple who provide each other with a secure and romantic relationship. Virgos and pisces are a relationship which will have a strong start attraction but none can live with the insecurities that they bring out in each other.

ARIES
(3/21 — 4/19)

Leo and aquarius are an exciting and romantic pair which will provide a great relationship. Because aries and sagittarius are so temperamentally suited their relationship is one of the best. Gemini and aries keep each other entertained and will never get bored of the relationship. Aquarius and aries are both eager for adventure. Although aries and libra may be attracted to each other at first, it will soon fade away.

TAURUS
(4/20 — 5/20)

A taurus and virgo are a match made in heaven. Their love is one of love at first sight. Capricorn and taurus are very strong and loyal; they will have a relationship just as they are. Cancer and taurus are in harmony, their sentimentality is one that will make a good relationship. Pisces and taurus will have a relationship of affection and devotion. Scorpio and taurus are strong-willed and this will cause them to clash.

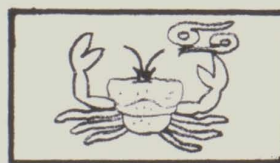

GEMINI
(5/21 — 6/20)

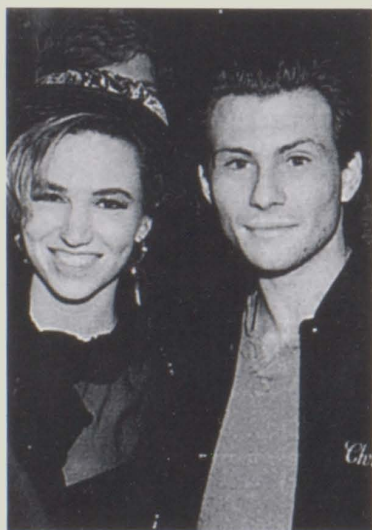

Libra and gemini are suited in every way, for each other. Aquarius and gemini are versatile and loving to each other. Aries and gemini are lively and energetic allowing them to be involved romantically and as good friends. Leo and gemini are a playful couple who will always enjoy each other. Sagittarius and gemini are too much alike, being that they are restless and argumentative. This is one relationship that is virtually impossible.

CANCER
(6/21 — 7/22)

Cancer and scorpio are both passionate and admire each other, realizing an ideal relationship. Pisces and cancer are an affectionate pairing that will feed each other's ego. Cancer and taurus both are loving and crave security. Virgo and cancer have meshable personality traits that will give off very happy vibes. Cancer needs togetherness and capricorn needs independence so this is one relationship which will not work.

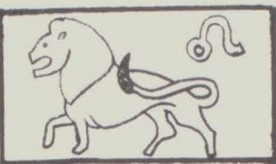

LEO

(7/23 — 8/22)

Two superstars that get along just fabulously are leo and aries. Both sagittarius and leo are freedom loving and enchant each other. Gemini and leo both like the same things so will have no problem knowing what is fun. Libra and leo are both unique and have a flair that will let them feed off each other. Leo's worshipping for aquarius is too constricting for that independent personality of an aquarius.

VIRGO

(8/23 — 9/22)

Taurus and virgo are a lovely match because they are so compatible. Capricorn and virgo please and admire one another. Cancer and virgo can draw each other out of their protective shells. Virgo feels loved although scorpio is possessive. It may start out as fascination but later a relationship between a pisces and virgo will lead to disillusionment.

LIBRA

(9/23 — 10/22)

Their love for fun and affection make libra and gemini the ideal pair. Aquarius and libra can be romantic partners as well as good friends. Always ready to party, leo and libra will always be having fun. Sagittarius and libra will enjoy a happy easygoing relationship. Aries and libra may very well get off on a great start but will soon drift in separate directions.

SCORPIO

(10/23 — 11/21)

Cancer and scorpio will find the intimacy and sharing that they need. Scorpio loves pisces romantic nature. Virgo and scorpio are deeply committed and loyal to each other. Capricorn and scorpio have a sense of belonging and closeness which draws them together. The physical attraction soon dies between a taurus and scorpio after each realizes that the other is stubborn and jealous.

SAGITTARIUS

(11/22 — 12/21)

Aries and sagittarius are a loving pair which share lots of the same interests. Leo and sagittarius provide each other with adventure and romance. In a good-natured way libra and sagittarius charm each other. Aquarius and sagittarius share a common love for new experiences. Until the bickering starts gemini and sagittarius may enjoy each other at first.

CAPRICORN

(12/22 — 1/19)

Capricorn's romanticism is brought out by taurus. A nice blend of virgo's need for security and affection meshes well with capricorn. Scorpio's jealousy and possessiveness pleases capricorn. Although pisces and capricorn are very different they are very protective of each other. Cancer and capricorn are a relationship which can't be touched because you both wound each other without knowing why.

How will my views change my life;

As we grow older, life becomes increasingly more complicated. Sometimes we can not help but change, whether or not we want to, our views or lifestyle. Dear Zora,

There are so many people that we meet in our lives but only a very few leave a lasting impression on our minds and hearts.

It is these people that we will think of often, and who will always remain important to us — as true friends. CONGRATULATIONS, Judy, Carmne, Derek, Shelton, Steve, L., Steve D., Hank, Ike, Tom, Jose, Sandy, Virginia, Pat, and Gloria.

Dear Zory,

Congratulations and much happiness, We love you and are very proud of you and all of your achievements. We hope all of your dreams come true. Whatever you choose to do in life know that we'll always be there for you. May your future be filled with love, health and happiness.

Our prayer is that you will grow closer to GOD each day of your life.

Love always, Mom, Cristy & Alina.

Dear Maryann,

East Side High School's '92 publication of the TORCH was printed by the Herff Jones Yearbook Company, 525 Boyds School Road, Gettysburg, PA 17325. 500 copies, 184 pages printed in 9 1/2 format was Smyth sewn rounded and backed. All type was deluxe and set by Herff Jones. The dominant font was Lydian and Lydian Bold Italic. 4/C printing and standard spot color was utilized in the opening section of the TORCH. 100# Eurogloss was used on pages 1-16. 80# Calais was utilized on pages 17-184. Endsheets were same front and back vibra color #5 white. The TORCH cover design was Vista Screen on Antique Red 1080 with applied second colors white and silver. Herff Jones specialty foil Prisma F9 was applied to the theme on the cover.

The staff attended a Spring Design Clinic sponsored by our representative, Ellen Stahl of Glen Rock, NJ. John Sullivan of Gettysburg, PA designed our cover. All layouts were designed by Lurdes Borges, our editor, Diana Fernandez and Luis Olivera.

*In the bustling city's bosom,
Like a gem most rare,
Shines the noblest of our treasures,
Shines our high school fair.
In the field, the hall, the city,
Loyal to thy name,
Be it ever our endeavor
Far to spread thy fame.
Then unite in loyal praises,
Ere the glad days run,
In the world are many high schools,
In our hearts but ONE.*

*Hail, all Hail, dear East Side High School
Green thy memories be;
By the bond of happy hours
Are we bound to thee.*
